MODERN SCIENCE AND THE CREATION

GREAT PROFESSOR'S BACK TO GENESIS THEORY.

THE UNIVERSE "A WORLD OF PURE THOUGHT."

A most interesting theory of the origin of the universe which brings the most modern discoveries of science into harmony with Plato and the first chapter of Genesis was outlined by Sir James Jeans,
the famous Cambridge scientist,
when he delivered the Rede Lecture in the Senate House, Cambridge.
"The tendency of modern physics," he said, "is to resolve the whole material universe into waves, and nothing but waves."
"These waves are of two kinds
—bottled-up waves, we call matter, and unbottled waves, which we call radiation or light."
"If annihilation of matter occurs the process is merely that of unbottling imprisoned wave energy and setting it free to travel through space."
"These concepts reduce the whole universe to a world of light, potential or existent, so that the whole story of its creation can be told with perfect accuracy in the six words: 'God said, 'Let there be light.'"

He declares that the "mechanical" explanation of the universe
—for the present—dead. Science has gone back to creation.

Back to the Source.

"As we trace the stream of time backwards," said Sir James, "we encounter many indications that, after a long enough journey, we must come to its source, a time before which the present universe did not exist."

And there will come a time when the universe will exist no longer.
Eventually, he said, according to the laws of thermodynamics—the motion of heat—"everything in nature passes to its final state," and when the final state has been inevitably reached, "further progress will be impossible, and the universe will be dead."

Sir James confessed—or asserted —that "all the pictures which science now draws of nature, and which alone seem capable of according with observational fact,
are mathematical pictures."

The universe, he suggested, is a creation on the lines of pure mathematics, nature works "according to the laws of pure mathematics," and "the Great Architect of the Universe, now begins to appear as a pure mathematician."

And no one but a mathematician agreed, can hope "to understand those branches of science which try to unravel the fundamental nature of the universe."

Just as pure mathematics are
"pure thought," so, argued Sir James Jeans, the creation of the universe was an act of thought, the universe itself is "a world of pure thought."

"Mind," he said, "no longer appears as an accidental intruder into the realm of matter; we are beginning to suspect that we ought rather to hail it as the creator and governor of the realm of matter—not, of course, our individual minds, but the mind, in which the atoms out of which our individual minds have grown exist as thoughts.

A Designing Power.

"We discover that the universe shows evidence of a designing or controlling power that has something in common with our own minds—not, so far as we have discovered, emotion, morality, or aesthetic appreciation, but the tendency to think in the way which,
for want of a better word, we describe as mathematical."

"Modern scientific theory" compels us to think of the Creator as working outside time and space, which are part of his creation, just as the artist is outside his canvas.
Indeed, the doctrine dates back as far as Plato: "Time and the heavens came into being at the same instant in order that, if they were ever to dissolve, they might be dissolved together. Such was the mind and thought of God in the creation of time."

(Sir James Jeans, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D., F.R.S., is secretary of the Royal Society, and a famous Cambridge scientist and astronomer. He has been Second Wrangler, Smith's prize man, Fellow of Trinity College, university lecturer in mathematics, and Stokes lecturer in applied mathematics.)

WOMAN'S PAGE

NOVELTIES FOR THE NURSERY.

Babies this year are wearing hand-knitted shawls again, made of the softest possible wool in garter stitch on rather coarse needles, and these are often seen in delicate pastel colours as well as in white.

A novelty that is liked by many nurses is a bassinette on wheels, which can be trundled from one room to another. This is made in white enamelled wood and the wheels are larger, solid wooden affairs with a primitive, prehistoric air about them.

Cradles and baskets are being trimmed to match, and the latest notion is that they shall accord exactly with the window treatment. Usually the material of the outer curtains is too heavy for this purpose, but the delicate lace nets that are now so fashionable for all inner curtains lend themselves admirably both for draping the cot and trimming the baby's basket.

They are especially appropriate for cradle curtains, as they are thick enough to ward off winter draughts without altogether excluding the air.

Toys for small children are also changing their character a good deal. Playthings on wheels in or on which the child can sit and push itself about are immensely popular, but the model motor-car now has a rival in the large "four-wheeled" animal covered in soft plush.

Bears of the grizzly rather than "Teddy" variety are another novelty of the season, while lion and tiger cubs in natural colouring are selling in large numbers.

NURSERY WISDOM.

PRECAUTIONS FOR WINTER DAYS.

There is a distinct "nip" in the air these days, and autumnal feel which even the brightest December sunshine only partially dispels, so it is high time for the nursery régime to undergo certain little essential changes in the matter of food and clothing. Let us first of all take stock of the latter. Vests should be changed for a combination garment which ensures more evenly distributed warmth and protection for the thighs and upper limbs.

This must be of soft, light weave and porous to allow a circulation of air to reach the skin. The actual material can be a matter of choice and should depend largely upon whether the child has been accustomed from birth to fabrics woven from cotton, linen, rayon or pure wool yarn.

The main point to be observed is the normal circulation of the individual child, because this varies considerably, some children requiring a much warmer clothing than others to keep the body at its proper temperature.

A stockinette suit or frock and knickers is really ideal wear for small children, as it fulfills hygienic requirements and affords perfect freedom of movement.

Avoid Tight Clothing.

The modern pantalets, or long leggings, should now be brought out for use, but they must be in no way tight or they defeat their object by stopping the free circulation of the blood.

It is of the utmost importance to have the feet not only comfortably but well shod for out-of-doors, with soles which are really damp proof. It is so often through the feet and legs that children catch a chill.

Bearing this in mind, the question of socks for indoors should largely depend upon the general atmosphere of the house, as well as the nursery premises, whether it is centrally heated or has the all-too-common draughty passages.

Throats Need Not be Muffled.

Do not wrap up a child's throat closely. Mufflers and fur close round the neck quickly weaken resistance, and sore throat and allied troubles are the result. Gloves protect little hands from chilblains and "chapping" of the skin, which wind produces quite as much as frost.

My final advice to the children's clothing at this time of year is: try as far as possible to regulate it according to the needs of the day, but always have an eye on the wind so that no matter how bright the weather looks the outer garments worn may be windproof when it blows up from a cold quarter.

Changes in Diet.

A word as to changes in diet. During the colder months it is necessary for the children to have an increase of fats, which are the heat-producing foods.

It should, however, be remembered that there are two kinds of fats, the animal and the vegetable, and that both do not contain all the same qualities. For instance, animal fats such as butter and suet contain the important vitamin which prevents rickets, while the vegetable oils and lard do not; hence the importance of butter or good "dripping" on the nursery bread in place of margarine, which is generally made from vegetable oils.

Boiled suet puddings with home-made jelly, honey or golden syrup are indicated, the former providing the heat and the sugar of the latter the requisite energy-building properties. Plenty of milk or cocoa and chocolate made with milk should appear frequently on the menu.

A PROBLEM.

Christmas gifts for the man who seems to have everything. This is usually one of the biggest problems with which the Christmas shopper seems to be confronted. But why should it be, since a gift of something really attractive is always appreciated by a man, no matter how extensive his wardrobe may be. Distinctive neckwear, knitted silk mufflers, crêpe silk handkerchiefs, carefully chosen socks, cosy pull-overs, etc., are always adaptable.

Men like their leisure too, and they like to take it with something of an air of luxury. That is why a handsome lounge robe and gay slippers are perfect solutions of gift problems.

You certainly will have an easy time making your Christmas gift selections at Mackintosh's, for here you will find the details of style that fashion authorities recommend and which are so essential when choosing a gift for "the man who has everything."

Just what he'll appreciate!

The old kind of luxury gift, which the embarrassed recipient hid away with all speed, is disappearing. A man prefers a gift of personal adornment.

Men nowadays devote more thought to their good appearance, so that you cannot make a mistake if your gift adds to his wardrobe.

We have laid in a specially chosen stock in anticipation of your visit. Everything is marked with good taste and has the modern note, and is of such quality that your choice must commend your good judgment.

You are invited to use our displays as a source of inspiration in Christmas present giving. The problem of what to give will dissolve like a soapflake in the time, when you are confronted with so wide a selection at such tempting prices.

GRAVE PROBLEM IN GERMANY.

URGENT NEED FOR FINANCE MEASURES.

STARVING MASSES OF BERLIN.

Berlin, Dec. 8.—Both the Chancellor, Dr. Brüning, and the Foreign Minister, Dr. Curtius, intervened in to-day's debate in the Reichstag. The Chancellor, after dealing with several controversial points brought to light in the discussion, issued a solemn warning to the House not to trifle with the issues before it. He also stated that the present financial programme which is embodied in the Presidential emergency decree, only forms a beginning which was both urgent and necessary and could neither be amended nor delayed.
Dr. Curtius also appealed to the parties for a speedy regulation of the financial issues in order to afford a firm basis for the conduct of the country's foreign policy.
He also declared that he would defer any remarks on the disarmament problem until after the close of the Geneva conference of the preparatory disarmament commission, and that for the time being he could answer any criticism only behind the closed doors of the Reichstag's Foreign Affairs Committee; as there were many questions that could be more fruitfully discussed thus than by agitating speeches outside. The Reichstag would have full opportunity to discuss all questions of foreign policy in February in connection with the debate on the budget estimates for the Foreign Office, however.

Dr. Brüning to-day also saw President von Hindenburg in order to submit to him the resignation of the Minister of Justice,
Dr. Bräuer, as the Economic Party has by now definitely gone over into the opposition camp. The Ministry of Justice will for the time being remain in commission.

Starving Masses.

Meanwhile the authorities are making every effort to assist the huge masses of people who either do not get any unemployment doles or for whose families the amount thus received does not suffice, as actually is the case with by far most of them. The Prussian Minister, Herr Severing and Herr Hirtzscher, therefore to-day convened the leading Berlin businessmen to a conference for arranging a relief fund.

In an eloquent appeal the Minister of the Interior, Herr Severing, pointed out that hunger was really reigning among the masses, as shown by the fact that the recent attempts to plunder shops had not been directed against jewellers and goldsmiths but at bakers and butchers.
He stated that it was most urgent to give relief to these masses, as it was very hard on the police to repress hungry and starving people.

In the following discussion one of the leading members of the Berlin Chamber of Commerce and Industry expressed great scepticism whether business-circles were able to spare any amounts worth mentioning for charity. The representative of the association of Berlin employers of labour gave assurance of moral support but could not promise much cash. Some employers, however, undertook to do their best and a fund was opened with a private subscription of 6,000 marks.

SINO-AMERICAN ARBITRATION.

TREATY RATIFICATION EX-PECTED IN SENATE.

Washington, D.C., December 5.—
Early ratification of the Chinese-American treaty of arbitration was predicted to-day by Senator William E. Borah, Republican of Idaho, and chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. Senator Borah said he knows of no opposition to the pact, which was signed in June of this year.

The treaty was favourably reported to the senate as a whole by Senator Borah's committee yesterday. He said it is identical to similar treaties of arbitration negotiated between the United States and other countries recently.

THE SILVER SCREEN.

"LET'S GO NATIVE."

The practice of the law lost two adherents, and the business of making screen amusement gained two in the persons of Leo McCarey and Skeels Gallagher. Both men have contributed to the success of the musical comedy smash, "Let's Go Native," now showing at the Central Theatre.

McCarey, director of the picture, is a graduate of the law college of the University of Southern California. He was admitted to the bar, and for a time practiced his profession.

Gallagher, a featured comedian in the film with Jeanette MacDonald, Jack Oakie and James Hall, studied law at the University of Indiana, but did not complete his course.

McCarey found writing rando-ville sketches and composing popular music more interesting than trying cases, so he gave up his practice to go into the show business. Being a resident of Los Angeles he presently transferred his activities to the film studios.

Oddly enough it was the writing of a sketch which put an end to Gallagher's legal prospects. He did it when he should have been studying, and as a result received word from the faculty that he was wasting his time in college. The warning proved to be a boon to the fortunes of the comedy aspirant. In a short time he had booked his sketch and soon after he was working in the big time circuits. Later he gained fame in musical comedy on Broadway and it was then just a short step to fame in the fun-music-dancing films. He was seen in "Close Harmony," "Honey," "Paramount on Parade" and "The Social Lion."

"ANNA CHRISTIE."

Greta Garbo's long heralded first all-talking picture, "Anna Christie," adapted from the celebrated play by Eugene O'Neill, is showing at the Queen's Theatre and fulfilled all expectations. Miss Garbo's voice is not only suited admirably to the role of the Swedish farm girl but gives every indication of being rich enough to be adequate for any role which she may be called upon to play in the future. The much-discussed Garbo accent is so slight as to only make her speech the more interesting.

In "Anna Christie," Miss Garbo gives a brilliant performance as the struggling, struggling, struggling and seeks a new life on a fishing barge with her father. Miss Garbo seems to have garnered the innermost thoughts and feelings of the character she portrays and endows her with a warmth and naturalness which does little short of bringing the screen shadow to actual life. Every gesture and every spoken line is fraught with a deep emotional understanding. The role is undoubtedly the finest Miss Garbo has essayed during the few years in which she has been on the screen.

The work of the supporting cast is equally proficient. George Marion plays the father role with the same intensity with which he created the original stage role and later played the part in the silent picture made several years ago; Marie Dressler, as the tippler Marthy, gives a superb characterization far removed from her previous comedy roles; Charles Bickford, as Matt, Anna's lover, gives a sterling performance.

"ALL QUIET ON THE WESTERN FRONT."

Remarque wrote that the finest thing out of the war was comradeship born in battle. I wonder what he would have said had he seen the strange comradeships made while his book "All Quiet On The Western Front" was being made into a picture.

So much William Bakewell, who at 22 is one of Hollywood's most popular and most promising players and who has the role of "Albert," the little comrade, in Universal's production of Erich Maria Remarque's sensational book of the war which is coming to the Queen's Theatre on Sunday.

The comradeship that Remarque wrote of was that of German for German, Frenchman for Frenchman, Britisher for Britisher. In the making of "All Quiet" as a picture all bounds of nationalism were swept away. In the ranks of the soldiers used in the picture were German, French, Russian, Canadian, American and Italian.

They camped for a month together, sharing tents, while the company was on location. They became the greatest of comrades and friends. I have seen a friendship develop between a Canadian who won a high decoration for cleaning out three German machine-gun nests and who played a German soldier in the picture and a German who was a crack machine gunner during the war.

"I have seen a Frenchman, wounded in action over there, agreeing with a German veteran to share a room together after the picture was completed. There was no segregation. A German drilled Americans and an American handled a squad of Germans. Not once was there a quarrel or a fight, even in the heat of some of the terrible battle scenes.

MRS. KEITH MILLER IN FLORIDA.

END OF ADVENTUROUS FLIGHT FROM CUBA.

Miami, Florida, December 5.—Appearing worn and dejected Mrs. Keith Miller, the noted British aviatrix, arrived here to-day from Nassau in the Bahamas Islands. She declared she is broken-hearted because the people of England and some Americans doubt her account of her recent adventures.

Mrs. Keith Miller said that when she has rested she will summon newspaper reporters so that to them she may explain in detail the events which, last week, led the world to believe that she had lost her life while attempting to fly from Havana, Cuba, to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Arrival of Mrs. Keith Miller at 10 o'clock this morning reunited her with her financial supporters, a group of sympathetic friends and Captain W. N. Lancaster, her companion on many of her aeronautical exploits.

Again to-day Mrs. Keith Miller denied that her adventures in the Bahamas were deliberately planned for publicity purposes. She said that several hours out from Havana she realized she had lost her way in a fog. Her fuel supplies exhausted and her aeroplane buffeted by severe storms, she was forced to make an emergency landing on isolated Andros Island.

While the world believed her to be lost she located a small sailing vessel aboard which she travelled from Andros to Nassau. At Nassau she explained that disrupted cable facilities between Andros and Nassau made it impossible for her to communicate her plight.

U.S. EXCLUSION POLICY.

DRASTIC LIMITATION FOR FIVE YEARS

Washington, D.C., December 5.—For three hours to-day the immigration committee of the House of Representatives considered the Bill of its chairman, Representative Albert Johnson, Republican of Washington, which provides for suspension of immigration into the United States for a period of five years.

After to-day's hearing Representative Johnson indicated that further consideration of his Bill will be necessary before the immigration committee can report on it to the house. Immigration from Canada and Mexico is proving to be a perplexing problem, said Representative Johnson.

Meanwhile, the department of state issued an announcement declaring that since October immigration into the United States has been reduced 87 per cent. This reduction has been accomplished through action of United States consular officials abroad. They have refused to grant passport visas to persons likely to become public charges in the United States.

Representative Johnson's Bill would, for the next five years, admit only 100 "technical workers" to the United States. Even Filipinos, America's wards, would be excluded from all but the Territory of Hawaii where they are needed as sugar plantation labourers. The Bill would, if passed, establish the most drastic immigration exclusion policy in the history of the United States.

PLANNED HER OWN FUNERAL.

BURIAL AT SEA AND NO GLOOM.

Six choir girls wearing white dresses and blue veils followed the coffin at the funeral service for Mrs. Parker, the wife of the Rev. J. L. Parker, vicar of Lankester-by-Roway, at St. Saviour's Church, Polruan (Cornwall).

The coffin had a cover of royal blue velvet made by Mrs. Parker, who planned all her funeral arrangements herself. There were none of the conventional signs of mourning.

Mr. Parker and his brother were the only mourners, and at the service conducted by the Rector of Lankester (Rev. H. D. Stratfield) a hymn of praise and a triumph chosen by Mrs. Parker was sung. After the service the coffin was borne out to sea in a tug. Committal prayers were said, the coffin cover was removed (to be placed in the church) and the remains lowered into the sea. Five wreaths were also cast into the water, although Mrs. Parker had wished no flowers to be sent to her burial. Mrs. Parker had designed her own mourning cards, selected the flowers and chosen the dress for the girls.

WITH THE BRITISH NAVY ON THE YANGTZE.

THE MOST ADVENTUROUS WATERWAY IN THE WORLD.

CONVOYS AND SHIP PROTECTION.

The Yangtze River with Communists and bandits lining the banks for miles and miles between Shanghai and Ichang is much in the news these days. Hardly a vessel proceeds up the river without being fired upon and a state of uncertainty exists which makes navigation very hazardous.

It is in these circumstances that the British Yangtze Patrol, in co-operation with the gunboats of other powers, is called upon to work over-time extending the protection so necessary for the conduct of commerce and the safeguarding of lives and property. In the following article reproduced from the North China Daily News, a vivid sketch is given of the work of the British Navy on the Yangtze and the many different jobs the gunboats have to undertake during their patrol of the Great River.

A MOTHER TO THE RIVER STEAMERS.

Up and down the Yangtze, in and out the Leacon fires, that's the way the gunboats go. Yet nobody knows just where they go. That in brief is the 'horrible' tale of the Royal Navy as it plays mother to the river steamers as they chug-chug along the highroad of China's main traffic artery. The Navy does many other things as well, not included in the programme. There is the careful attention paid to the little matter of evacuating foreign communities from old corners in times of stress. The evacuation is often followed by the equally difficult process of "re-placing the turf" as the golfers would say but that is another story. Then sometimes the gunboat temporarily taking on passengers and, wishing it had more carefully studied the rules of the Cunard line, finds the task of entertaining a little wearing as Mr. Wilfer called it.

The Nature of the Problem.

These gunboats owe allegiance to a controlling authority who, officially, is known by the initials H.A.Y. To him they are pawns in the game; the pawns are few enough for the demands made upon him and them. Still he does the best he can do with them and he sees to it that the Navy's reputation for making a good mother is equal to that of any other. For the job is to see that those gallant masters of the river steamers, who most philosophically accept risks for which their ostensibly peaceful habits are not supposed to be intended, get through to their destinations without loss of passengers, freight or time. There is also the duty of ensuring that at certain points along the river, where places like Hankow, Yochow, Shasi, Ichang and the rest lie, there is a gunboat or two within hail. When on the top of all this a gunboat has to be detached on an ad hoc expedition to extricate a missionary or two from the embraces of bandits and thus perhaps, for five or six days, that gunboat is off the actual patrolling strength, it will be seen that the game of the Middle Yangtze is quite as difficult as may well be desired.

The game is internationally flavoured. Other navies cooperate. The British and Japanese, having the heaviest responsibilities, supply the largest numbers of gunboats; then come the Americans, French and Italians in the order named. The epic of the Yangtze patrol is one indeed of wholehearted international comradeship—a point which Geneva might consider when it is waxing specially eloquent on the abolition of the navy. In fact the Yangtze may proudly claim to be patrolled on the most up-to-date international principles. It cheerfully does its best to provide unflinching interest for its policemen.

A Lively Stretch.

There is one very lively stretch of river to which the wendys pay close attention. That roughly lies between Yochow and Shasi. Yochow, at the entrance to the Tungting Lake has many stories to tell of evasions. The Lake itself is a happy hunting ground for the moderately good sport. Between Yochow and Shasi there lies a zig-zag strip of the Yangtze bounded downstream by Kienli and upstream by Temple Hills. That is where the band often plays a little less noisily of late but quite enough to keep the wendys and the masters of the river steamers on their toes.

The inwardness of the game can be appreciated only if it be made clear that a ship does not wait up the river like the steamers from Westminster to Hampton Court. She cannot keep to midstream and so shorten her course, as well as reduce the target for the bandit on the bank. The journey has to be made drunkenly from bank to bank in the scriggling course marked out by the beacons of the Customs survey, few of which have been left in position by the Reds. So as every now and then the ship staggers to the bank—now left, now right. Then there are the Bisleys experts. Their trouble is that they firmly believe that if they put their sights up to 400, they have booked a table as it were for 400 sculpas. As their shooting is on a par with their theoretical musketry, the results are not excessive. Yet in between Kienli and Temple Hill there have been some very pretty dialogues in explosive vein.

Where the Reds Go.

Of late the river-bank enemy have displayed a distinct weakness in discipline and gunnery. They have to some extent been cleared off the banks as far as Kienli where Government troops—with some signs of hesitancy at times—are operating against them. But there is ground for the belief that in the interior the Red leaders are accumulating the pick of their forces and they may be organising mischief for the not very distant future. If the Government troops persist in their curious habits of choosing the wrong bank of the river for their preliminary discharge of offensive arguments for the retirement of "red" forces, this development may prove to be unpleasant. That is thought to be the reason for the calmness with which the news of the Government's lurid intentions has been received by the marauders. However that is not the affair of the Navy. That single-minded if obstinate influence is concerned mainly with the performances of its gunboats.

A Brisk Game.

For the moment the game is briskly played. The Government troops are beginning to feel their way upstream. The Navy however has to continue to make sure about the journeys of these river steamers and also to keep touch with events as far up as Chungking. It also has to cope with the day to day politics of the river, such as the mystery of the steamer who forgot to say she was coming and so temporarily gave mother and father quite a fright. It has to play its thirteen gunboats with due economy. It has to pretend to be extremely unconscious of there being anything unusual about "red" bandits or beacon-lit courses; it has even to be benevolently restrained in its comment when marks are removed and the chances of detecting a changed channel are therefore destroyed. It does all this in blistering heat, in the bitter cold of the Chinese winter and amid the curious paucity of scientific insect life. And, at the end of it all, when bits of the Navy roll into Shanghai and are finding their way in their obsequious or not so obsequious richness to the cinema or the cabaret, they do not say anything about that aspect of their long absence. They just wonder whether Sheffield Wednesday is getting up to the top of the table again. And if they were told that somewhere within reach of them solemn discussions were proceeding on the subject of their recent activities and that such words as "Bandit suppression," the "communist menace" and "restoration of peace" were being used, they would be quite surprised. But they would sleep just as soundly for all that.

SALARIES OF WOMEN SCHOOL TEACHERS.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

Sir,—Mr. X, in to-day's issue of your paper, suggests, not for the first time, that "when a lady teacher, engaged from England for the Education Department, marries in Hong Kong, she should not be kept on the Home staff which has high salaries and is pensionable, but should be put in the locally engaged English staff, whose maximum salary is about half that of the Home staff and is not pensionable. In this way a great saving could be effected." [No. 13 of the letter appearing under the signature "X."]

I will point out to Mr. X, that since the new scale of Government salaries came into force, that is, as from January of this year, a lady teacher has to leave the permanent staff on marriage and become a dollar paid member of the Department, at the rate of pay of a teacher recruited locally.

So Mr. X's desired scheme is already in force: a lady who is fully qualified to teach, who has been recruited from England, and who has been teaching for any number of years at a decent, increasing, sterling salary, is expected after marriage to perform the same work at a greatly reduced, fluctuating salary, with no pay on leave, no passages provided, no security of appointment, and no prospect of a pension. The Government, which has recently pledged itself to the ideal that good work should be adequately rewarded, has recanted in this case, and decided that after marriage a woman can be expected to give good work, for the slightest remuneration.—Yours, etc.,

Hong Kong, December 10.

LATE MR. BURNETT'S ESTATE. WILL PROVED IN LOCAL COURT.

Estate in the Colony worth $13,300 was left by Mr. George William Code Burnett, late proprietor of the Newspaper Enterprise, Ltd., who died at 110, The Peak, on January 1, this year, at the age of 61.

Mr. Burnett left a will dated March 21, 1912, in which he appointed his wife, Caroline Elizabeth Grace Burnett (née Sinnott) to be the sole executrix and bequeathed everything to her. A codicil, undated, annexed to the will, provided that in the event of testator's wife predeceasing him all the property shall go to his son, Mr. Gordon Code Burnett.

Letters of administration with the will and codicil annexed have been granted to Mr. D. C. Wilson, business manager, China Mail, the lawfully elected guardian of Mr. Gordon Code Burnett, the next-of-kin, during the latter's minority.

CANTON COMMUNIST HOLOCAUST.

THIRD ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, Dec. 11. To-day being the third anniversary of the Communist holocaust in Canton, a popular meeting was held in the local Kuomintang Headquarters this morning.

All the Government organs, from the Provincial Government downward, labour unions, merchant guilds and other public organizations were represented in the gathering.

Speeches denouncing the Communists and their programme of destruction were delivered by high officials and Kuomintang leaders.

It was exactly three years to-day that the Communist upheaval occurred resulting in the loss of over 3,000 lives and the destruction of property worth more than $10,000,000. Several blocks of buildings, including the Central Bank of China building, were reduced to ashes. A stone monument was later erected on the corner of Wing Hon and Tai Hong Road to remind the people of the unparalleled tragedy.

The speakers also directed an attack on the agents of Soviet Russia, declaring that they were behind the upheaval. The fact, they said, that several Russians were killed in action at the time proved that the deplorable event was engineered by them.

The Chinese Communist Party was similarly flayed. The word communism has become a synonym for banditry. Although these lawless elements have been permanently driven out of Canton, they are still quite active in Kiangsi, Hunan, Fukien and the north-eastern parts of Kwangtung, where the inhabitants are still being terrorized, but the Central Government has at last directed its undivided attention to the annihilation of these desperadoes, Marshal Chiang Kai Shek personally directing the campaign.

CHINESE NEW YEAR ON JANUARY 1?

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE STATEMENT.

In connection with the proposed adoption of the Gregorian calendar by Chinese merchants in the Colony, Mr. Li Yick Mui, the Chairman of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, has made the following statement:—

"In my opinion, Chinese merchants in Hong Kong should adopt the new calendar if merchants in the interior have actually abolished the lunar system. As there is a huge volume of trade between Hong Kong and the interior, merchants in the Colony should adopt the same calendar as that of the merchants up country, or much inconvenience would result. The Chamber has been soliciting the views of local merchants, but up to the present no reply has been received. The matter will be discussed at the forthcoming meeting of the Chamber which will decide upon the matter in accordance with the consensus of opinion of the general public.

CANTON'S SCHOOL CALENDAR.

CHINESE OLD NEW YEAR ELIMINATED.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, Dec. 11. Drastic changes in the school calendar have been announced by the Canton Government.

Instead of having several weeks' holiday during the old Chinese New Year, as has been the case from time immemorial, the scholars will be compelled to attend class as usual.

This is designed to enforce the adoption of the solar calendar. The local Bureau of Education has already announced that the present year will close on December 31, and the next spring half-year will begin on January 12.

MUI TSAI PROBLEM REVIEWED.

GOVERNOR'S LETTER TO LORD PASSFIELD.

ISSUED AS WHITE PAPER IN LONDON.

A Reuter's message dated December 10 stated that a letter from H.E. the Governor, Sir William Peel, to Lord Passfield on the mui tsai question had been published in London as a White Paper. We are enabled, by the courtesy of the Colonial Secretary, to publish below the full text of the despatch in question. The sub-headings are ours:—

GOVERNOR'S DESPATCH.

Government House,
Hong Kong,
June 25, 1930.

My Lord,—In reference to paragraph three of Your Lordship's despatch No. 80, of the 8th of March, 1930, requesting that on the conclusion of the sixth months interval allowed for the registration of existing mui tsai, a report should be made showing the number of registrations effected, and generally what measures, if any, are considered necessary to promote the policy expressed in the present law, I have the honour to inform Your Lordship that on June 1st the number of mui tsai registered since 1st of December, 1929, was 4,183.

2.—At the beginning of April less than 200 registrations had been effected, but with the loyal assistance of the District Watch Committee and the distribution of many thousands of circulars explaining clearly what was required and the consequences of failure to comply, I am glad to be able to report that the number of registrations steadily increased, reaching 1,000 by the end of April and, as stated above, more than 4,000 by the end of May. I consider that this is a very satisfactory response. The original estimate of 10,000 as the total of mui tsai resident in the Colony was merely a guess and it appears probable that it was too high.

Returned Voluntarily to Parents.

3.—Any diminution from the number of mui tsai that may have been formerly supposed to exist in this Colony may be accounted for in large measure by the action of employers in returning mui tsai to their parents either voluntarily or upon request. Within the last six months fifty-two such cases have been brought to the notice of the Secretary for Chinese Affairs. In almost equal proportions the return to the parents in those cases have been either voluntary on the part of the employer, or effected without opposition at the request of the girl made to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs, or effected without opposition on application made by the parents to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs.

Apart from these cases which actually come to the Government notice, I am informed on good authority that many restorations have been privately made, and also that in many cases mui tsai have been sent to the country homes in China of employers of the middle and upper middle classes.

4.—In the cases of which the Secretary for Chinese Affairs has cognisance the return of a mui tsai to her parents is not made without inquiry, and since December 1st, 1929, eight claims by parents to recover their daughters have been disallowed, and in six out of the eight cases, the girl, at her own earnest request, has been permitted to remain registered with her employer.

Refused to Go to Parents.

To take one such case as an example, Tsau Kuk, a little girl of ten, resisted most strongly her natural mother's attempt to recover her from her employer. She was very happy where she was, and well treated, whereas she feared her natural mother would only sell her elsewhere. As for her father, at the sight of him she burst into tears and flatly refused to go to him.

Other such instances could be given, as where Cheung Hing, aged 15, contented and well cared for at her employer's home, declined to go back to a mother who she said would try to take her abroad.

5.—I mention these cases to show that the lot of the mui tsai is by no means necessarily the unhappy one that some have stated. The mien and general appearance of many a mui tsai who the Secretary for Chinese Affairs has observed of late being registered in his department go far to refute such hasty generalisations. The cases of cruelty and ill-treatment do from time to time come to light is unfortunately only too true. It has always been, and it will continue to be, the policy of this Government to deal firmly with such cases. Since the 1st of December, 1929, eleven convictions have been obtained on charges of cruelty, though it was found in every case that the girl was a mui tsai.

BILLS PASS THEIR FINAL STAGE.

SIX APPROVED BY LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

ONLY ONE AMENDMENT.

The following Bills passed their second and third readings at a meeting of the Legislative Council yesterday:—

"A Bill to amend the Crown Lands Resumption Ordinance, 1900."

"A Bill to impose Duties in respect of admission to Entertainment."

"A Bill to amend further the Piers Ordinance, 1890."

"A Bill to amend further the Stamp Ordinance, 1921."

"A Bill to make certain provisions relating to the corporation named The Tung Wah Hospital."

"A Bill to amend the law relating to the powers of arrest possessed by revenue officers."

In regard to the Bill to amend the Stamp Ordinance, the Attorney-General mentioned that among other things the duty on cheques will be raised from five to ten cents. For the first two months from January 1, an adhesive five-cent stamp might be added to existing cheques, but after two months, people with cheques that have been stamped for five cents will probably have to apply to the Colonial Treasurer for a refund.

When the Tung Wah Hospital Bill was in committee certain small amendments immaterial to the general tone of the Bill were proposed by the Attorney-General.

There were present:—

H.E. the Governor, Sir William Peel, K.B.E., C.M.G.,

Hon. the Colonial Secretary, Mr. E. R. Hallifax, C.M.G., C.B.E.,

Hon. the Attorney-General, Mr. C. G. Alabaster, K.C., O.B.E.,

Hon. the Secretary for Chinese Affairs, Mr. A. E. Wood,

Hon. the Colonial Treasurer, Mr. C. McI. Messer, O.B.E.,

Hon. Mr. H. T. Cross, C.B.E. (Director of Public Works),

Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, C.M.G. (Inspector General of Police),

Hon. Commander G. F. Hole, R.N. (retired), (Harbour Master),

Hon. Dr. A. R. Wellington (Director of Medical and Sanitary Services),

Hon. Sir Shou-sun Chow, Kt.,

Hon. Mr. W. F. L. Shenton,

Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotowall, C.M.G.,

LL.D.,

Hon. Mr. J. Owen Hughes,

Hon. Mr. C. G. S. Mackie,

Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga,

Hon. Dr. T. S. Wan, O.B.E.,

LL.D.,

Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson, and

Mr. N. L. Smith (Deputy Clerk of Councils).

H.E. the Governor, at the close of the business of yesterday's meeting, announced that it was necessary to have one short meeting before the end of the year to adopt the report of the Finance Committee. The Council was adjourned sine die.

One Case of Gross Cruelty.

In one case gross cruelty was found by the Magistrate, who imposed a sentence of six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. In another case, where the victim was not a mui tsai, a sentence of three months without the option was imposed. In another, $500 was ordered, and a warrant issued for arrest. In three cases the fine was $100, in one it was $500, in two it was $50, in one $25 and in the eleventh case the Magistrate administered a caution.

6.—Since 1st of June, thirty-one mui tsai have been brought up for registration in some cases by bona-fide employers who pleaded ignorance, in others by employers who stated that they returned to the Colony too late to register before the first of June. The Secretary for Chinese Affairs, being satisfied with the bona-fide and absence of undesirable features in these cases, caused the girls to be registered, as I had authorised him to use his discretion during the first week or two after the 1st of June. The situation will be carefully watched, and it has been made clear by proclamation, advertisement and pamphlet that it is the firm intention of this Government to enforce the law with reference to mui tsai. Should cases be found of unregistered mui tsai the employers will be prosecuted. There has been one prosecution under section 2 of Ordinance 22 of 1929 for bringing an unregistered mui tsai into the Colony, the defendant being fined $25.

7.—The present position may be regarded as not unsatisfactory and I do not consider that any further measures are at present required to promote the policy expressed in the existing law.

I have the honour to be, My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient humble servant,
W. F. L. Shenton,
Governor, etc.

LAKE-DOBSON FIGHT AGAIN?

CRICHTON-MORRIS SCRAP POSSIBLE.

PROGRAMME FOR NEXT BOXING TOURNAMENT.

The City Hall has been booked by the Hong Kong Boxing Association for Saturday, January 3, 1931, when the second boxing tournament has been arranged to take place.

Those who were fortunate enough to witness the Lake-Dobson fight for the Lightweight Championship of the Colony and Belt at the last tournament on December 6, when Lake won on points after fifteen rounds of excellent boxing, will welcome the news that the probabilities are that a return match will be held on January 3, while those who did not see the last "mixing-it" then will be well-advised to keep that date open. In case this fight does not come off, the main event will be a bout between Stinnie Morris and Jack Crichton either at "welter" or "middle," but Manager "Josh" Brooks states there is a possibility of both scraps taking place on the same evening.

Lake and Dobson need no introduction after their splendid scrap at the City Hall recently. Needless to say hundreds will be looking forward to the return bout. Regarding the Morris-Crichton fight, the former is well-known locally while Crichton has been making a name for himself in Shanghai where he has beaten all the "big noises."

Both Morris and Dobson are training under the watchful eye of the old-timer "Sky" Kerrison who got them in trim for their last fights. Kerrison has a handful of boys under his care and he and his charges can be seen training at their quarters every evening from about five o'clock onwards. Skipping, ball-punching, sparring and all sorts of exercises are gone through and it is good indeed to see that although "Sky," who was at one time welterweight champion of the Colony, has definitely retired from the ring, he is still taking such an active interest in the noble art. It might be of interest to note that he also trained Roberts, Kelly and Berry for their fights in the last tournament.

KIDNAPPER SENTENCED.

MAXIMUM PENALTY IMPOSED.

Three men and a woman were brought before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on charges of kidnapping and harbouring a six-year-old boy.

From evidence given by the father and the boy himself it appears that the child was kidnapped on November 11 while playing at Prince Edward Road. The first defendant, who had been to the boy's house several times before, met him in the street and bought him a toy sword and later took him to a village in Tai Shan district and sold him for $340.

On November 23, the first defendant was met by the father in Nathan Road, and on being asked whether he had kidnapped the boy or not, he tried to run away. He was caught and taken to the Sham-shing Police Station. From information given by the man, the defendant, were subsequently arrested.

After hearing further evidence, his Worship convicted the first defendant and sentenced him to one year's hard labour and 20 strokes of the birch. The other three defendants were discharged.

INTERPRETER CHARGED.

ALLEGED EXTORTION FROM HAWKER.

Li Tsan Pui, interpreter at Police Headquarters, who is charged with attempting to obtain $300 from a licensed hawker, was again before Mr. E. W. Williams at the Central Magistracy yesterday.

Tung Kwan Tai, mother of the hawker, gave evidence that on November 10, $300 was given by her son to the interpreter. Witness, who was present when this incident took place, asked what the money was for, and the defendant replied that it was to be delivered to No. 83, which she understood was the number of a police officer. Witness added that these proceedings, which took place in a room, were watched by a policeman who had installed himself in an adjacent room.

Evidence was also given by District Watchman No. 112, who said that immediately after the defendant came out of the room, witness came out from his hiding place and caught up with the defendant. The interpreter refused to be searched in the street, and even refused to be searched by the S.C.A. and later to Police Headquarters.

"RED" ACTIVITIES CHECKED.

SIXTEEN MEN DETAINED BY POLICE.

On being informed that local Communists had planned to stage a demonstration in the vicinity of Queen's Road West yesterday afternoon, a large number of detectives and members of the Police force were dispatched and posted at various points where the "Red" activities were to have taken place. Plain clothes policemen were also detailed for duty at Hollywood Road, and it is believed that in all there were about 100 members of the Police force who were on the lookout for the Communists.

Shortly after 12.30 p.m. the Police arrested six suspects at the Yin Heung Tea House, two of these being attired in European clothing. It is reported that shortly after the Police arrested ten more men in connection with "Red" activities.

It is believed that yesterday was the anniversary of an event of some importance to Communists, and for this reason they had planned a programme in celebration. While the Police were at their work, traffic was held up for a short time.

YAUMATI MURDER.

WITNESSES AFRAID TO IDENTIFY SUSPECTS.

In doing their best to bring to book the murderers of Detective Tse On, who was killed by suspected Communists on Monday night, the Police are finding it difficult to have the three arrested suspects identified by witnesses.

Very strong suspicion is against the three detained persons, but although witnesses are available these persons appear to be afraid to point out the assassins, and consequently no useful purpose was served by the identification parade held recently. Knowing the ordinary fear of the Chinese layman regarding the evil influence exercised by any organized body of desperadoes, the police were not very optimistic as to the result of the identification parade.

Commenting on the attitude of six or seven of the witnesses called to point out the three suspects, a police official said, "They would not even look at them."

The present position of the police is that they had been relying mainly on a solitary witness of the incident. He is a waiter at the restaurant, but this man has declared his inability to identify any of the suspects.

It would appear, therefore, that there is little prospect of the men being charged before a Magistrate, but it is understood that they will be put up for banishment.

It may be noted that the informer who lured the detective to his death is still at large.

ALLEGED "SQUEEZE."

CHINESE CONSTABLE IN DOCK.

A Chinese constable stationed at No. 7 Police Station was yesterday charged before Mr. R. E. Lindell with receiving a bribe and alternatively of misconducting himself as a police constable.

Mr. P. P. J. Wodehouse (D.S.P.) prosecuted, and Mr. Mr. F. C. E. Rendall appeared for the defendant.

The prosecution stated that the complainant lived in the basement of No. 4, South Lane, which was apparently an opium den. It is alleged that the defendant went to premises on two occasions, on September 30 and October 31 and asked for money with the idea of "squeezing" the complainant for keeping the premises.

On December 7, said Mr. Wodehouse, it was alleged that defendant went to the place and again asked for money. The following day the complainant notified the police and a trap was laid.

When the complainant met the constable the next day, he gave him $150 which had previously been marked. This money was subsequently found on him.

In a statement to the police, after having been duly cautioned, the defendant said that the money was forced upon him by the complainant as a loan.

The case was adjourned.

The Daily Press.

HONG KONG, DECEMBER 12, 1930.

GENEVA AND WORLD
DISARMAMENT.

If world disarmament is accomplished within the present century it will be due to the League of Nations. Armed forces can only be given up if all nations accept a convention embodying concrete proposals to the desired effect, and the town of Geneva is the one meeting place of all countries. The path leading to disarmament is strewn with difficulties technical and political that only long and patient work can remove. The Washington agreement touched the fringe of the problem by reducing the fleets of the world from a war to a peace basis and imposing a few limitations on capital ships. The subsequent conferences at Geneva and at London did not secure spectacular results and were generally described as failures. But they at least prevented a new race of armaments, of which there was grave danger, and the two leading naval powers, Britain and America, agreed to the principle of parity, without going too far into the interpretation of the term.

The Preparatory Commission for the Limitation and Reduction of Armaments has been in intermittent session for over four years, and now, after a final meeting of five weeks, has completed a draft convention. This will be submitted to a World Conference on Disarmament, and after due revision, sent for ratification by the Governments of the different Powers.

The work of the Preparatory Commission should have cleared the approaches to the problem. Every difficulty should have been thoroughly explored. At the earlier Conferences problems seemed to crop up unexpectedly, and, faced with difficulties which they were not prepared for, the delegates very humanly became disturbed and out-of-temper. The Preparatory Commission has examined what armaments are, why nations want them, and how far there is a genuine wish for reduction and limitation. Long before the war pacifists, like Mr. NORMAN ANTON, pointed out that all nations declared that they armed only for protection's sake. Therefore, armaments had a basis solely of fear. If fear and distrust could be removed no country would need either an army or a navy. The fallacy lay in any inherent dishonesty in the minds of those expressing such views than in the word "protection." A thorough-going militarist has a very different view from a pacifist. A Power with a growing population and trade would claim that colonies were necessary for protection, and not only colonies but overseas naval bases. Grants of colonies and harbours, even at other people's expense, would be claimed as a right.

At the moment the problems are much more direct and imminent. France is frankly afraid of the recent outbursts of militaristic zeal in Germany, and the beautiful spirit of Fascism in Italy. Past experience does not give French people much faith in treaties and pacific assurances. They prefer to take precautions. Poland is afraid of Russia and Germany, while the Balkan States, as always, eye each other and Turkey with supreme suspicion. Germany is not satisfied with the present settlement, and Germany will not remain unarmed for ever, unless other nations will submit to similar restrictions. There are many potential causes of war in Europe, and militarism is spreading to the East. Once it was thought that the rising tide of democracy would end war, but in democracy there is no hope of peace. It is to Geneva that men are looking for the statecraft that will quiet the jealousies between nations and secure a gradual reduction of armaments. We are now heading for new competition in armed forces and an Armageddon that will end war by destroying the whole human race.

ARE WE ALOOF?

The Canton Gazette, at the request of a Chinese gentleman, has re-printed a lengthy article by Sir CHARLES PETRIE, an historian and publicist, who severely takes his countrymen to task for rudeness and for being "bad mixers." We are sure that the Canton Gazette published Sir CHARLES PETRIE's article for our own good, and it is worth while examining the allegations which are made against us as a nation. According to Sir CHARLES:—

It appears to be pretty generally agreed that one reason why Great Britain is losing so much of her export trade is that Englishmen are bad mixers. We are told that they approach a potential customer in a "take-it-or-leave-it" manner instead of asking after his health and his family by way of prelude, and then gently approaching the business in hand. No one who has travelled with his or her eyes open can deny that there is a great deal of truth in this allegation. The Irishman, of course, gets on with every race—except the English; but the Englishman, whether he comes from Cornwall or Northumberland, only too often keeps himself to himself. It is this aloof manner of the English businessman that is losing the foreign market. The American, the German or the Italian is prepared to be pleasant to potential customers, while the Englishman apparently does not bother, so it is hardly surprising that the former gets the orders while the latter does not.

The charge is an old one, but the idea among English people is that we have outgrown the boorishness of the past, and that our manners compare well with those of other, and especially the younger, nations! But here is a jolt to our complacency.

The Englishman is still a bad starter. He often looks severe and gives an impression of aloofness and unwillingness to make new friends. Nearly two hundred years ago that gentle Irishman, OLIVER GOLDSMITH, wrote while in London: "Pride in their port; defiance in their eye. I see the lords of human-kind, go by."

This attitude may have its origin in the traditional treatment of the new boy at an English school. He is not shaken by the hand by the old stagers and told that they are pleased to meet him. He is either ignored or put through his paces. Many an Englishman, one must confess, has a habit of treating his fellow men a little as if they were new boys at school. He can get on without them, and he is suspicious until he is properly introduced, and the other fellow has made good in his eyes. It is all very unfortunate, especially in these democratic days when gentility is almost as important as soundness of character.

The Peking-Mukden Railway, says the Chinese Press, has floated a loan to purchase forty locomotives, each of which will be able to haul 1,200 tons of cargo. It is expected that the railway's revenues will be increased by $500,000 each year after the new locomotives are placed on service.

The Sinwupao says that the new national tariff will be promulgated by the National Government on January 1, 1931, and will come in force on February 1 and that, in order to avoid paying higher import duty, the native merchants have ordered large quantities of foreign products and told consignors to ship the cargo to China at the earliest possible date.

Complaints are being made by people of German origin to the effect that the census which is to be made throughout Czechoslovakia, seems likely to be attended by curious intrigues intended to reduce the number of the minority inhabitants in certain districts by artificial means. Thus Czech troops are being imported wholesale into German townships in order to redress the population balance in favour of the Czechos.

Danube Not Blue.

The Danube is not blue! Strauss invented the legend. Mr. John North, the novelist, writes from Rumania that in the last month he has travelled the entire length of the river, and the only blue he saw was the ship's funnel. "The captain," he says, "told me he's been up and down the Danube for 40 years, and never had seen it anything but grey or green, whereas the Black Sea is most decidedly blue and it deserves its tenebrous title—unless it relates to its navigation."

He has, however, been instructed by the National Government, through the Executive Yuan, to remain in office.

Shadows Over Haanlem.

The first performance of a play entitled "Shadows over Haanlem," by Ossip Dymoff, ended in an uproar at Stutgart and the police were called in to suppress the disturbance. They wielded their truncheons with great effect and drove the audience out of the theatre. The play which deals with the negro problem in the United States, was frequently interrupted by the audience. Their annoyance culminated in uproar when the author, Dymoff, appeared on the stage to make his bow.

At Londonderry House.

There were 1,400 guests at Lady Londonderry's reception for Mr. Baldwin last month. There was the usual spectacle of Lady Londonderry, a queenly figure in black, standing at the head of the great double staircase, of the crush in the long picture gallery, the overwhelming display of white necks and high tiaras, and the swarming throng in the dining-room below where the buffet had been installed. Miss Chamberlain, Sir Austen's daughter, was heard to remark "No signs of poverty as yet."

The silver production in the Yukon is nearly five times as great as that of gold, he said, and now $4,000,000 in value per annum.

New Finger-Nail Fashion.

An English beauty-specialist, in Bond-street, finds that "mother-of-pearl" finger nails are rapidly gaining favour among her clients. An opalescent, semi-luminous effect is obtained on the finger-nails by coating them with a rose-pink enamel, letting it dry and then applying a new liquid varnish which contains the lovely tints found in mother-of-pearl. This treatment is applied only for evening "wear." For daytime use the "sports nail" is the favourite—a coating of pale shell-pink waterproof enamel.

Moreover "Mark Severn" has in his house in Sheffield-terrace, West Kensington, the famous name plate, bearing the inscription "Caroline of Brunswick, the injured Queen of England," which was torn from the coffin on its indecently hurried journey from Brandenburg House, near Hammersmith, to Harwick.

Not a Happy Place.

An attack on the business methods of the Soviet Government was made by Mr. Leslie Urquhart, who presided at the annual meeting of Russo-Asiatic Consolidated, Ltd. "The recent Lena case," he said, "proved the discredit and dishonest methods applied to private business in Russia to-day. Private capital cannot work there without commonsense safeguards, and we are not going to risk our capital in restoring our Russian properties for the sole benefit of Moscow. I believe that this last Communist effort on a huge scale is bound to fail. Mr. Urquhart added that when he visited Russia he found that "on the slate" to be shot. "It was not a very happy time," he said.

Looking Back 25 Years.

The education department of Canton has notified the public that the second batch of members of the society who have expressed their desire to proceed to Japan to study commercial and political economy questions, are requested to call at the offices of the Board of Education to report themselves between the 9th and 13th inst., and to hold themselves ready to start on their voyage before the Chinese New Year. It is stated that the Government gives a member 300 taels to defray expenses during the six months' stay in Japan. The first batch of 40 proceeded to Japan about a month ago.—Hong Kong Daily Press, Dec. 12, 1930.

Looking Back 50 Years.

A serious difficulty in the way of having a gold or silver Government currency in China, (says a contributor to the Foochow Herald), is found in the attitude of the people for counterfeiting. This is shown by a large proportion of small cash that are in common use, and by the frequency with which bad dollars are met with. But perhaps few are aware of the extent to which the manufacture of counterfeit dollars is carried on, and one or two illustrations may be of interest. The writer has known a man near one of the mission chapels within the city, who for the past fifteen years has supported quite a family by making false dollars. His business is well-known to his neighbours. He detests genuine dollars by removing the silver and filling in the inside with base material, and then passes them off for genuine dollars around Foochow, or sells them to the people who take them, and the people take them, and the people take them. A search was made but the man was not seen again.

SUGAR MONOPOLY IN CHINA.*GOVERNMENT TO SHARE IN PROFITS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, Dec. 10. It is understood that powerful Cuban sugar interests recently proposed to the Chinese Government a 20-year sugar monopoly in China, under which Cuban sugar would be exempt from Chinese import duty, a Cuban combine and the Chinese Government equally sharing profits from the expected heavily increased consumption. The Chinese Government is reported to have rejected the scheme, pointing out that China in 1929 imported 760,000 tons of sugar valued at 100,000,000 taels, bringing in a revenue of $16,000,000 (Mex.); and they consider the proposal would not increase the revenue. Furthermore, the sugar duties are likely to be considerably increased under the new tariff of 1931, especially white sugar, which is expected to be doubled. It is understood that Cuban interests are now proposing the initiation of a sugar refining industry in China as a joint Government enterprise, Cuban interests providing $50,000,000 (gold) as capital.

BANK FAILURES IN AMERICA.*CONFERENCE OF LEADING BANKERS.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

New York, Dec. 11. The leading New York bankers held a conference at the New York Federal Reserve Bank owing to the "run" and withdrawals at some of the branches of the Bank of the United States, one of the city's smaller and newer banking organizations, which is in no way connected with the American Government. According to the bank's officials, the alarm was caused by the failure of the negotiations for the formation of a bank with assets of $1,000,000,000.

A telegram from New York, dated December 8, stated that the negotiations for a merger by four banks with resources totalling $1,000,000,000 had broken down. A telegram from New York, dated November 24, stated that four leading banking concerns, the Bank of the United States, the Public National Bank & Company, the Manufacturers' Trust Company and the International Trust, were amalgamating with resources of $1,000,000,000.

The President of the combination was to be Mr. J. Herbert Case, who is the chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. The merger was to give the organization 140 branches in New York City, with deposits of approximately $700,000,000.

NOTES were posted at the head office and branches of the Bank of the United States this morning stating that the institution was in the hands of the State Banking Department.

CONTROL OF CABLES IN CHINA.*TRANSFERRED BY FOREIGN COMPANIES.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, Dec. 11. The first concrete results of the eight months' negotiations between the Chinese Government and the foreign cable companies were attained to-day, when the representatives of the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company and the Great Northern Company agreed to the transfer to China as from December 24 of the control of the Shanghai-Choofoo-Tientsin submarine cable, which since its inauguration in 1901 has remained under the complete control of these two foreign companies.

RADIO TELEPHONE SERVICE TO ARGENTINA.*CHARGES FOR THREE-MINUTE CONVERSATIONS.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 10. The Postmaster-General announced that from December 12 direct radio telephone communication will be available between Great Britain and Argentina, with an extension by land line in South America to Uruguay and Chile. The service will be available to all parts of Britain and Northern Ireland and in South America to subscribers at their ordinary telephone rates. The minimum charge, covering a three minute conversation from any place in Britain to a city and province of Buenos Aires, will be £6, to the remainder of Argentina, six guineas; and to Chile, £6 12s.

WORLD'S PEACE.*STRIKING SPEECH BY FIELD MARSHAL ROBERTSON.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 11. The veteran soldier Field-Marshal Sir William Robertson, one of the outstanding figures in the great war, made a striking speech on the maintenance of the world's peace, when, yesterday, he unveiled in Hollywood, Southampton, the last of the five memorials erected in Great Britain to the officers and men of the forces who fell during the war and whose graves were unknown. "Such ceremonies," he said, "remind us of the large sums still being expended upon armaments, and that in spite of the enormous sacrifices in the great war, including no fewer than 9,000,000 lives. Many people think wars will continue to recur. Fortunately, the picture has another side. Whereas the means of settling international disputes is now more universally condemned as failure than ever before, and every day it becomes more evident that there are no really foreign nations, but that the interests of all are so closely interwoven that if one nation suffers all will suffer to some extent. Undoubtedly the maintenance of peace is not the first essential measure required to prevent war. By far the most important requirements are less jealousy and less selfishness in the conduct of international affairs. That spirit is we may hope now gradually appearing, and when it is adequately forthcoming, and not till then, disarmament will follow rapidly and easily enough, and nations will at last be on the road to peace and goodwill. The successful attainment of such a result would be the greatest war memorial that could be erected, and it ought not to be lightly denounced in advance as fantastic or impossible, and so bring both civilization and Christianity into contempt."

The memorial he unveiled is especially to those who went down in vessels torpedoed or were mined in home waters, but its record includes also the names of others who died at home or in distant areas and whose bodies could not be recovered. Among them was Lord Kitchener, whose name figures on the first panel and who was drowned on a mission to Russia. Field-Marshal Robertson described him as the principal organizer of victory, who alone saw the war would be one of long attrition, and the most outstanding and trusted personality of the Allied War Council. "Lord Kitchener never disclosed within my experience that thoughtless and domineering disposition which some attribute to him," added the Field-Marshal.

IDLE INDIANS IN CEYLON AND MALAYA.*BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S POLICY OF REPATRIATION.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 10. In the House of Commons to-day, questioned whether provision had been made to repatriate unemployed Indian labourers in Ceylon and Malaya through the rubber depression, Dr. Drummond Shiels said that he was unaware whether special provision had been made in Ceylon. He would ask the Governor as regards Malaya. It was the Government's policy to repatriate all unemployed Indians, and 13,300 had been repatriated during the first nine months of this year.

PRINCE OF WALES SPEAKS SPANISH.*"HIS GRAMMAR AND ACCENT ARE SPLENDID"

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 10. The Prince of Wales' progress in Spanish was strikingly demonstrated during a speech he delivered at a dinner given in his honour at the Savoy Hotel by the Argentine Club. "His grammar and accent are splendid," declared many Spanish guests. The Prince only occasionally glanced at his notes, and turned from Spanish to English, or vice versa, several times with the utmost ease. The Prince of Wales' linguistic efforts ought to contribute largely to the success of the British Trade Exhibition at Buenos Aires in 1931, which is the first entirely British exhibition ever staged in a foreign country.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.] Prince Quotes Poems of the Argentine.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 11. The Prince of Wales spoke in Spanish and English at the dinner in his honour held at the Anglo-Argentine Club, London, last night. The Prince sails for South America in a few weeks and will open the British Empire Trade Exhibition at Buenos Aires.

The Prince said he was greatly looking forward to his visit, and mentioned that the exhibition was the first entirely British Trade Exhibition staged in a foreign country. On this occasion he hoped to see a little more of the marvelous fields of the Argentine, and his desire was stimulated by reading some of the popular poems of the Argentine, of which he quoted verses by Santos Vega. He also expressed the hope that in addition to commercial intercourse there should be an added interchange of Anglo-Argentine cultural ideas.

EMPRESS OF SCOTLAND DOOMED.*THREE HUNDRED TONS OF OIL AFIRE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 10. The liner Empress of Scotland (25,000 tons), which was recently sold for £25,000 for dismantlement at Blyth, Northumberland, caught fire early this morning. When built in 1905 she was the world's biggest boat. The fire spread rapidly, in spite of the combined efforts of several fire brigades and a fleet of fire-floats augmented from the Tyne. This afternoon all hope of saving the ship was abandoned when 300 tons of oil fuel in her bunkers ignited.

ANGLO-AMERICAN NAVAL PARITY.*U.S. ADMIRAL'S SURPRISE ANNOUNCEMENT.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. Early preparation for the 1933 Naval Conference is the newspaper interpretation of a surprise announcement made by Admiral Pratt, Chief of Naval Operations, before the Naval Committee of the House of Representatives, that "naval parity with Great Britain by 1933 was not contemplated by the United States." Admiral Pratt added that the Hoover Government looks to Congress to authorize a fleet conforming to the terms of the London Naval Treaty before the treaty expires, but has indicated that it intended to spread the proposed programme involving an expenditure of $1,000,000,000 over a longer period.

COURT OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE.*U.S. PROTOCOL SUBMITTED TO SENATE.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10. President Hoover has submitted to the Senate the Protocol worked out by Mr. Elihu Root and his colleagues last year for the United States adherence to the Permanent Court of International Justice.

ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE.*DRAFT REPORTS BEING PREPARED.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 10. The committee work of the Indian Round Table Conference will be resumed on Friday. The results of exchanges of views during the past few days, meanwhile, are being summarised in the form of draft reports by the Chairman of the Burma Sub-Committee and the Provincial Constitution Sub-Committee. They will be presented for further discussion at Friday's meetings before being sent on to the Committee of the whole Conference early next week, probably on Tuesday. Debates in the Provincial Constitution Sub-Committee have covered a wide range, and any of the subjects touched upon may again be reviewed on Friday.

A small committee set up yesterday by the Federal Structure Sub-Committee to revise the schedule of federal subjects met to-day. Its report will enable the Sub-Committee to complete the outlines of its draft plan for a federated India to be reported in due course to the Committee of the whole Conference.

NOBEL PEACE PRIZES.*AWARDED TO U.S. SENATOR AND ARCHBISHOP.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

OSLO, Dec. 10. The establishment of a world-wide brotherhood was the keynote of a distinguished gathering, including King, Prince, and members of the Diplomatic Corps, at the presentation of the Nobel Peace Prizes to Senator Frank Kellogg and Archbishop Roderick. The former, while deploring the numerous predictions of war, declined to interpret the signs of the times as foretelling war. The Archbishop received the prize as a tribute to the ecclesiastical movement within the churches for greater unity.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. A message from Havana states that fresh rioting has broken out in several parts of Cuba. One person was killed and several were wounded.

OBITUARY.*GENERAL W. H. ANDERSON.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 11. The death is announced of General Sir Warren Hastings Anderson. The deceased General served in the South African War, 1899-1902, in the European War, 1914-1918, was Commandant of the Staff in the Egyptian Expeditionary Force, 1918-1922, and commanded the Bluchistan District, Quetta, 1924-1927.

RAILWAY DISPUTE IN BRITAIN.*MANAGERS AND UNIONS FAIL TO AGREE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 10. The managers of the railway companies met the executives of the Railway Unions in London to-day to discuss the latter's demands for improvements in rates of pay and conditions of service. It was announced that the companies were unable to concede to their demands, and the Unions' representatives intimated their intention of submitting their claims to the Central Wages Board, to which the companies' claims for reductions have already been submitted. It is hoped that the Board will meet on December 19 to consider the dispute.

It is officially estimated that the saving in labour costs of the proposals made in mail week by the railway managers to the unions of the men in the traffic and clerical grades of the service would amount to £2,500,000 a year, and the savings accruing from the proposals made recently to the representatives of the shopmen would be £1,500,000 a year, a total estimated saving of £4,000,000. This sum is roughly 10 per cent. of the total wages and salaries bill. There are nearly 625,000 railway workers affected by the proposals, about 110,000 being shopmen. The position of other grades in the railway service has not yet been considered by the railway managements. The wages of some sections, like the dock workers, are governed by awards or agreements to which the railway companies are not the principal parties.

Five railway companies—the four principal groups and the Metropolitan—were represented at a meeting of the National Railway Shopmen's Council and the following organisations of the men:—The Amalgamated Engineering Union, the Electrical Trades Union, the Federation of Engineering and Shipbuilding Trades, the National Union of Foundry Workers, the National Union of Railwaymen, and the United Pattern-makers' Association.

Workshops and Stores.

Sir Ralph Wedgwood, the chairman of the General Managers' Conference, made a full statement explaining the present financial position of the companies, and submitted the following proposals:—The War wage of 18s. 6d. per week at present paid to railway workshop staff and stores staff whose rates of pay and conditions of service are governed by Decision No. 723 and subsequent decisions of the Industrial Court, to be reduced by—6s. 6d. per week in the case of men employed on piecework or other systems of payment by results, and 4s. 6d. per week in the case of men employed on timework, leaving a War wage of 10s. per week in the case of Sir Ralph Wedgwood pointed out that the proposed reductions would bring the War wage of railway shopmen to the level of the War wage in the general engineering industry. [THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BRUSSELS, Dec. 10. Addressing the Sugar Conference to-day, Mr. Chudbourne (U.S.A.) pointed out that Javanese producers had provisionally agreed to reduce their exports, and he appealed to the other delegations to apply restrictive measures. He suggested that each delegation should appoint two members to reach an understanding on the general principles, and also proposed the formation of a committee to collate world statistics, and a further committee to consider the means of reducing stocks; also a permanent commission to meet quarterly to supervise the enforcement of agreements and study the means of increasing world consumption and to constitute a world fund for that purpose.

Higher Customs in Belgium.

BRUSSELS, LATER. The Chamber has adopted Bills for increasing the customs duties on imported sugar and lowering the excise on domestic sugar.

The Germans announce their intention of seeking an increase of the annual export quota from 200,000 to 300,000 tons.

Java Sugar Trust Sales Discontinued.

BATAVIA, Dec. 11. The Sugar Trust has decided to discontinue sales temporarily.

Percentage of Restricted Crops.

LATER. It is learned that the Cuban-Java Sugar Agreement which has been concluded at Amsterdam involves a restriction of the Java crop by 11.72 per cent., and the Cuban crop by 23.5 per cent.

Both parties are trying to induce the European producers to restrict their crop by 20.5 per cent.

Herr Deknatel, one of the managers of the Netherlands Trading Society, Batavia, in proceeding to China to defend the interests of the Java sugar producers in view of the rumoured possibility of China granting a Cuban sugar preferential tariff.

The trade union representatives undertook to consider the proposals and to give a reply at the earliest possible moment. It was expected that the unions will be in a position to announce their policy on November 28. Should direct negotiations fail to produce agreement the subsequent procedure will be different from that provided for the conciliation grades. For the conciliation grades there is first the Central Wages Board (a body consisting wholly of railway company and trade union representatives), and afterwards the National Wages Board, which has an independent chairman and includes representatives of the users of railways. The appeal, in the case of the shopmen, is to the Industrial Court, the chairman of which, Sir Harold Morris, is also chairman of the National Wages Board.

CRICKET TEAMS AND PLAYERS.

A GLORIOUS GAME AT HAPPY VALLEY.

R. ABBIT'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

From time to time when local cricket topics are discussed one hears severe criticisms of the League system of cricket. It is said to make the game dull and uninteresting. But while we have such matches as the one last Saturday between Craignower and the Civil Service, we have nothing to worry about. It was undoubtedly the finest match I have seen in Hong Kong. The two teams are strongly contrasted. The home side were all young men. Their team average was, it was said, twenty-four. The C.S. eleven contained five men who will never see forty again, although the inclusion of several new players has brought their average down from its figure a few years ago, which was (tell it not in Gath!) thirty-six! The home side were definitely favourites for the game, but their attack had rather an off day, after an excellent start, and the C.S. batsmen hung on grimly. It was an anxious time for Evans who, in the absence of the Captain, E. B. Reed, who was not fit enough to play, and the Vice-Captain, F. Baker, in Camp, had taken on the duties of Skipper. He knew well enough the quick-scoring capabilities of the C.C.C. and the bad start had slowed down the scoring though he, Sayer, and Griffiths hit out at the end, the last sixty runs coming in pretty quick time. The declaration could hardly have been made earlier. No time was wasted between the innings, and from the first ball sent down it was evident that Craignower were going all out to get the runs.

The Result of a Dropped Catch.

It is not often that a dropped catch results in giving victory to the fielding side but I rather think that it happened in the first over of the game under review. After hitting a four Lin skied one midway between Griffiths at deep mid-wicket and Evans at mid-on. Both went for it and the bowler forgot that Evans was captain and did not call. The result was that though he made an excellent attempt and actually got his hand on top of him and he failed to hold it, anyone else would have done. Now, had the catch by a miracle been held, it is doubtful if the C.C.C. could have gone on going desperately for the bowling. They might have got out, but with the C.S. attack weakened, I doubt if the result would have been anything else but a draw.

Five Hitting.

Lim and Gittins then hit at everything. Sixty must have gone up in a good deal less than half an hour, when the former lashed out at an off ball, missed it, and was magnificently stumped by Holdman. With E. Zimmer in the scoring continued at a rapid rate until Gittins hit over a yorker. Things looked a little brighter for the C.S. when A. T. Lee was bowled in trying to hook a good length ball, but with Omar and Zimmer going strongly all looked well for Craignower. Even when the latter was beaten by a good 'un, the match seemed well in hand, especially when Omar and Kitchell were set. By this time the batsmen and the bowler were about the only persons who were able to see the ball but it was then just half past five, and nobody had any intention of stopping before League time—5.45 p.m. With one hundred and sixty on the board and two batsmen going great guns it looked all but certain that a China orange on the home side who had only six wickets down.

A Spectacular Finish.

Then came the crash. Omar failed to get hold of one of Evans' off breaks, and those close at hand realized Sayer had taken a nice catch at cover. 101-7-7. When the next over started five runs were wanted to win. Kitchell, who had been playing forcing cricket with a perfectly straight bat, lashed out at an off-ball, and sent it high enough for de Rome, who was something between a long-off and a mid-off, to get a sight of it, and he made no mistake. The next ball was a shortish and got up. It beat the gloves but Holdman saved four by putting his throat in the way. The next ball kept low and took Reed's leg stump. Way got enough of his bat in front of the next to save his stumps, but he cocked it up to backward point and Sayer, for a second time, hit him in the side, and he was out. The match was won.

The Light, and Bouquets.

One of the most pleasing cricket memories that the C.S. team will have is the hearty and generous applause with which they were greeted, on coming in, by a side who had had apparently certain victory snatched from their grasp at the last minute. I have never seen a side display such a gallant cheerfulness. Indeed they seemed more pleased than the C.S. themselves as the game was relighted over a much-needed postscript. The highest credit is due to them also for the sporting nature of their bid for victory against the clock. One feels that a tie would have been a better result. The light question had broken equally, I think. From just after five to the half-hour it favoured the batsmen as the fielders could see little unless the ball came high and straight to them. Omar, for instance, might well have been taken at extra-cover once or twice, while the batsmen could see the ball fairly against the screen. But for the last two overs I doubt if they really had a fair sight of the ball either.

At the same time, while I hope I have done full justice to Craignower, one must not forget the winners. At the start it looked as if another C.S. collapse was, as usual on the ground, coming along. Barrow and de Rome played a most gallant part in laying the foundation of a decent score. Nor did the C.S. ever give up the idea of a win. Fast scoring means that a wicket may fall at any time and they never lost hope. The old tag fits. "They can because they think they can." It is the finest cricketing motto I know.

E.C.C. Again Crash.

There is no doubt that the K.C.C. team is going through a difficult period. Brace seems to pull them together a bit in League matches but otherwise they are very in and out. It looks as though they cannot make up their minds about the sides, as about three or four players who turned out for the second last week are quite good enough for the first. The first seven pick themselves or eight, if the hands are sound. But after that there usually seems to be chopping and changing. It shall not be surprised to see Lyl draw his men from among Lawrence, Smith, Mackay and Skinner. However that may be, they got an hiding from the University last Saturday being put out for eighty-one. Anderson got going at last, though I hear he was a bit airy in the slips, and the "Varsity" was comfortably, if not doing anything with the ball and not having much luck at that.

Services' Game.

The Navy and Army met on what was once the Naval pitch. Muson was playing, and A. C. Hamilton of the S.W.B.'s, was also an absentee. The Army, however, seemed to be in process of discovering a bit of batting talent. Lockner did well—another of the new regiment, I am told—but runs took a long time to get. Thorp was out again. This must be his first match since he has returned, and he seems to be in fair form as he got fourteen and bowled seven overs for fifteen runs and one wicket. I rather expect to find him skipping the Army side this year in the big games; anyway, to a civilian, it sounds rather like part of his job!

The Navy were not very convincing. A. B. Baker can bowl well on occasions and Moseley and Barrett are additions to the batting strength. But they will have their work cut out to field a good side for the triangular tournament.

To-morrow's Games.

The only League match down for decision (we keep that bit permanently set up now) is between the Navy and the University and I rather fancy the Navy will be beaten as they have to journey to Pokfulam and play on matting. The light up there, however, is not at all unlike that on the K.N.O.S.C. ground. I see with much interest that F. A. Redmond is turning out again, and he will, probably play regularly. A very useful member of the triumvirate of the old days with Marley and Brayshaw, his proficiency at golf and tennis has rather led him to neglect the cricket field. But his experience should be of immense service to the side, and besides being a dour bat, he used to send down a very useful ball.

Friendlies.

There are a couple of friendlies. C.S.C.C. are at home to the Argyls but their batting will be much weakened by the absence of Griffiths and Richardson, who will be in Camp, and R. M. Wood. Reed also will be away and in his absence Baker captains the side. The other match, Craignower and Indians on the Sookunpo ground should be a most excellent struggle. The Craignower team are just at present, I think, inclined to try to be a little too quick in the field, and to fall into the serious mistake of trying to throw the ball in before they have got it in their hands.

A Point of League Rules.

I have been asked to deal with the question of whether there is any definite rule about a man playing for first and second elevens in League games during the same season. It is an important point, and is going to affect the K.C.C. and the Civil Service a good deal, to mention only two Clubs. There is a general idea that if a man plays twice for the first League team he is barred from the second for the rest of that season. I cannot find this in the printed rules, and, if it ever was so, it is not correct now. I have spoken to one or two of League officials and ex-officials and I think there is no doubt that the answer is that in every Club it is left to the Captain to see that there is no unfair jockeying with the sides. It is absurd to do a man out of all League games because he has played the first two games for the first and then has been dropped from the team. Of course, there would be no practical difficulty if each side had two teams out in the League every day on which they were playing League matches. But as the Junior Division play so many more games this is not practicable.

The question is also bound up rather with the "reserve" question. The ideal of turning out the same eleven men every Saturday is one impossible to attain. And I have always held that the Captain of the first team has a right to transfer the best players from the second to the first team, and let the second fill up from reserves. But one can readily understand that this is pretty hard lines on the skipper of the second.

The final answer is that it is up to the Captain, who, if he is in any doubt or difficulty, can always write to the League Secretary for a ruling on a particular case. And though I make the offer very tentatively—if any Club feels at any time that a public explanation may in any case save a little heart-burning my column is always open for the ventilation of such statements.

TENNIS CHAMPIONS.

MRS. KEARY & MRS. TAYLOR WIN LADIES' DOUBLES.

LADY PEEL GIVES AWAY THE PRIZES.

Lady Peel was amongst a large crowd of interested spectators at the final of the Ladies' Open Doubles Championship at the United Services Recreation Club yesterday when Mrs. Keary and Mrs. Taylor defeated Mrs. Gull and Mrs. McCaw by two straight sets, the scores being 6-3 and 6-1.

The first set was very evenly contested and at one stage it looked as though it would be a much longer set, but after Mrs. Keary and Mrs. Taylor led at 4-3, they never looked back and played excellently to take the set at 6-3. Mrs. Keary, as usual, played a steady base-line game while Mrs. Taylor brought off several good shots at the net. She was very quick on her feet and time and again followed up a hard drive with a "kill" which earned her rounds of applause.

Regarding the losing pair, Mrs. Gull played a very hard game and several times brought off saves which appeared impossible. Mrs. McCaw was off her game though once or twice she did get in her fast cross-court drive.

As the score would indicate, the second set was a runaway affair and here again Mrs. Taylor was conspicuous for some very uncanny play at the net. Mrs. Keary remained steady throughout the two sets and while Mrs. Taylor was the most spectacular player, Mrs. Gull worked the hardest of the four. Mrs. McCaw was definitely off form.

President's Thanks.

At the conclusion of the match, Mr. R. E. Lindell, president of the Hong Kong Lawn Tennis Association, said that although the tournament was run by the United Services Recreation Club, it was held under the auspices of the Tennis Association which all such open tennis tournaments should be. He wished to thank the U.S.R.C. for the way in which the competition was run, adding that a special word of praise must be said for Commander Parsons, the tennis secretary, who had put in so much time to make the tournament the success it had proved to be.

Mr. Lindell said that they had to be grateful to Sir Robert Ho Tung for the two beautiful challenge cups. The Ho and Lo families have been great patrons of sport in the Colony and the best prizes for the tennis competitions are from them. The speaker then said that they were all very grateful to Lady Peel, who despite so many social engagements, found time to come and give away the prizes. In making Lady Peel to do so, Mr. Lindell said the winners would be presented with replicas of the Challenge Cups which were provided by the U.T.A. and were also the prizes for the runners-up.

Lady Peel then gave away the prizes, after which three hearty cheers were accorded her.

THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Local tennis enthusiasts will be interested to learn that an invitation has been received by Mr. C. A. Rumjahn, the well-known Indian Recreation Club player from the Philippines Amateur Athletic Federation, to take part in the National 1931 Championships which will take place from January 20 to February 16, at Manila.

Mr. Rumjahn is the singles champion of Tientsin, for although he left that port in October 1929, no championships have been held since then. We understand he is not very certain whether he will make the trip as much will depend on whether he will be able to obtain the necessary leave.

"RED" INVESTIGATION BY U.S. CONGRESS.

COMMUNIST CHIEF DENIES TIES WITH MOSCOW.

Washington, D.C., December 5.—William Z. Foster, head of the Communist Federation of America, to-day was summoned as a witness by the congressional committee, headed by Representative Hamilton Fish, Republican of New York, which is investigating alleged "red" activities in the United States.

In response to questions Mr. Foster denied that he receives a salary from the government of Soviet Russia in Moscow.

Only recently Mr. Foster was released from prison. He followed his conviction on charges of inciting Communist demonstrators to riot in connection with the last May Day activities in New York.

Investigative to-day attempted to show that the Communist organization in America is directly linked with the Russian Communist Party.

CONFUCIAN SOCIETY FUNDS.

ACCOUNTANT CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

Teoi Wan Um, accountant of the Confucian Society of 230, Hollywood Road, who is charged with embezzlement of $4,455.25, was again remanded for a week when he appeared before Mr. R. E. Lindell yesterday.

Mr. E. S. C. Brooks, who appeared in the case as representing the Confucian Society, applied for an adjournment to enable him to consider—with the consent of the police authorities—an application under the Larceny Ordinance, Section 92. Section 92 of the Larceny Ordinance states:—Where any person is summarily convicted before a Police Magistrate of any offence against this Ordinance and it is a first conviction, the Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, discharge the offender from his conviction, on his making such satisfaction to the party aggrieved for damages and costs, or either of them, as may be ascertained by the Magistrate.

REVERSE FOR "WETS."

FIRST SKIRMISH IN U.S. CONGRESS.

Washington, D.C., December 5.—The "wets" lost their first battle in the current session of congress to-day when, by a vote of 166 to 81, the House of Representatives refused to take the poison out of denatured alcohol.

The house rejected a proposed amendment to the treasury and post office appropriations Bill which sought to prohibit the addition of poison to denatured alcohol. The treasury department places poison in denatured alcohol in such fashion that even if it is redistilled it cannot be used for the manufacture of bootleg liquor.

For a long time the anti-prohibition forces have waged in vain against the tactics of the government in making denatured alcohol unfit for beverage purposes. Defeat of to-day's amendment means that poison will continue to discourage consumption of denatured alcohol.

HAKKAS v. HOKLOS.

CLAN FUED AT ABERDEEN.

A number of Hakkas and Hoklos were charged before Mr. R. E. Lindell yesterday with disorderly behaviour following their arrest in Aberdeen on Wednesday when the Police arrived just in time to prevent a serious clash between the two clans.

It appears that there has been some bad feeling between the Hakkas and Hoklos recently and matters were brought to a head on Wednesday when it is alleged that the Hakkas offended the Hoklos by throwing a stone at one of their womenfolk.

A Hukka foreman, who gave evidence before Mr. Lindell yesterday, made no reference to the Hoklo woman. He attributed the origin of the trouble to the fact that the Hakkas who worked on a site higher than the Hoklos in the new Aberdeen dam, had dropped some earth on the Hoklos below. The latter resented this and an altercation followed. The Hoklos rushed the Hakkas with bamboo poles but before anything serious happened, the Police arrived on the scene.

His Worship at the close of the evidence was satisfied that the Hoklos were the aggressors. He discharged two Hakkas who were in Court and fined two of the Hoklos $25 as these men were supposed to be ringleaders. Three others were fined $5 or seven days, and two were discharged, while one who failed to appear in Court had his bail exonerated.

"All Quiet on the Western Front" has been awarded the prize of the Academy of the Motion Picture Arts and Science for the best production of the year. The acting prizes are given to George Arliss in "Disraeli" and Norma Shearer in "The Divorcee." Miss Scherer having won by a close call against Greta Garbo in "Anna Christie." Lewis Milestone takes the directorial honours with "All Quiet." Recognition is given Willard Vander Veer and Joseph T. Rucker for their photography in "With Byrd at the South Pole."

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING of the Company will be held at the Office of Messrs. DODWELL & Co., Ltd., Queen's Building, Victoria, in the Colony of Hong Kong, at 11 O'clock in the forenoon on MONDAY, the 22nd DAY of DECEMBER, 1930, for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, passing the following Resolutions as Extraordinary Resolutions:—

1.—That the Articles of Association of the Company be amended as follows:—

(a) By the insertion immediately after Article 43 of the following new Article, namely:—

43.—(a) The Company may by ordinary resolution cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of such resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled:—

(b) By the insertion immediately after Article 102 of the following new Articles, namely:—

102a. The Company may at any time and from time to time in general meeting by resolution authorize the General Managers to capitalize any profits of the Company not required for the time being for payment of dividend upon any preference shares of the Company or other shares issued upon any special conditions, whether standing to the credit of the Company's reserve fund or otherwise, and including profits arising from the appreciation in value of capital assets, and to allot to the members holding shares of the Company in respect of the net amount capitalized fully paid shares of the Company of equivalent nominal amount, and the General Managers shall give effect to any such resolution accordingly, and any shares allotted pursuant to any such resolution shall be distributed among the members holding shares of the Company so far as practicable in proportion to the number of shares held by them respectively, and shall be credited as fully paid by means of the profits so capitalized and the General Managers may make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates or by the payment of cash or by sale and distribution of the proceeds or otherwise as they may think expedient for the case of fractions. The General Managers may appoint any person on behalf of the members to enter into any agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them of such shares credited as fully paid up, and in satisfaction as aforesaid and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective.

102b. The General Managers may, with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting, declare a dividend to be paid to the members according to their rights and interests in the profits, and may fix the time for payment, and may with the like sanction declare and pay a dividend or bonus out of any reserve fund and fix the time for payment thereof and may with the like sanction declare and pay bonuses to the Company's employees or any of them.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN that a Further EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING of the Company will be held at the Same Time and Place on TUESDAY, the 23rd DAY of DECEMBER, 1930, for the purpose of receiving a Report of the Proceedings at the above-mentioned Meeting, and of confirming, if thought fit, passing the following Resolutions, namely:—

1.—That the Company do hereby cancel all shares (namely, 22,277 shares numbered 2724 to 29000) which at the date hereof have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and do hereby diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

2.—That the Capital of the Company be increased from its diminished capital of $104,001.00 Hong Kong Currency divided into 27,223 shares of $7.00 each to $200,010 Hong Kong Currency divided into 71,430 shares of $7.00 each and that such additional shares shall rank in all respects pari passu with the original capital of the Company.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

3.—That the Directors be and they are hereby authorized to capitalize the sum of $77,500 profits of the Company standing to the credit of the Company's Reserve Funds and to allot to the members holding shares of the Company as on the first day of January, 1931, in respect of the net amount capitalized fully paid shares of the Company of equivalent nominal value in the proportion of two shares for every five shares of the Company then held by such persons, respectively, and that such shares so allotted shall rank for dividends as from the 1st day of January, 1931.

4.—That if on such distribution as aforesaid any person would be entitled to a fraction of a share the General Managers shall in lieu of issuing fractional certificates cause the whole share to be allotted to a person or persons to be named by the General Managers and such share may at such time as the General Managers think fit be sold, and the proceeds distributed amongst the persons entitled to the fractions making up the share.

5.—That the Directors be and they are hereby authorized out of the profits of the Company standing to the credit of the Company's Reserve Funds to pay to the members holding the 27,223 existing shares of the Company as on the 1st day of January, 1931, a sum equal to $8.00 for every five shares of the Company then held by such persons, respectively, by way of a bonus dividend out of the profits of the Company.

ALLEGED ATTEMPT TO POISON EMPLOYER.

APPRENTICE COOK SUSPECTED.

An attempt to poison his employer and his fellow workers because he had been reprimanded for stealing is an allegation that is made against Leo Sam (28), an apprentice cook at the Wing Fat Furniture Store, No. 46, Prince Edward Road.

On Wednesday, the employer and foks of the shop had just started their evening meal, when all complained that there was something wrong with the food.

A police report issued yesterday suggested that there was "noxious matter" in the food, but what exactly that is will be determined when the Government Analyst has carried out his investigations.

Leo Sam, the apprentice cook, who is suspected of having attempted to poison the foks and his employer, has disappeared and is being searched for by the Police.

THEFT FROM KOMOR'S.

THIEF SENTENCED TO FOUR MONTHS' GAOL.

Sentence of four months' imprisonment with hard labour was passed by Mr. Williams at the Central Magistracy yesterday on a Chinese for having stolen a gold ring mounted with jade, two mounted-jade pendants and a pair of jade earrings from a show case at Messrs. Komor and Komor about the middle of the month.

It would appear that the defendant went into the shop on two occasions and asked to be shown rings and jewellery. No purchase was made on both occasions, the man submitting that the prices quoted were too high. After the second visit, the complainant discovered the loss and immediately found in the street and arrested. The defendant, according to Detective Inspector Shannon, is a banishment from Singapore, where he had been sent to gaol for larceny and later banished for life.

"THE GREEN PASTURES."

THE PASSING OF MOSES.

(By MARC CONNELLY.)

"The Green Pastures" is an attempt by Marc Connelly to present certain aspects of a living religion in the terms of simple, untutored Negro believers, who, with terrific spiritual hunger and the greatest humility, have adopted the contents of the Bible to the consistencies of their everyday lives.

The children of Israel halt. Moses slowly seats himself on a rock. A great weariness has come upon him.

Moses: De Lawd said I could lead 'em to de Jordan, dat I'd see de Promised Land, and dat's all de further I could get on account I thought I did see a river, ahead, and a pretty land on de other side. [Distant shouts of "Hooray!" "Yere dey dey!" "Dey travelled quick!" etc.] Where's de young leader of de troops? Where's Joshua?

[Joshua enters. He is a fine looking Negro of about thirty.] Joshua [Going to Moses' side]: Yes, sah.

Moses: What's de shoutin' 'bout, Joshua?

Joshua: De scouts is back wid de news. De Jordan is right ahead of us, and Jericho is just on de other side. Moses, we're dere! [There are cries of "Hallelujah!" "De Lawd be praised!" "Hooray!" "De Kingdoms cemin!" etc. With a considerable stir among the marchers, several new arrivals crowd in from right, shouting "Moses, we're dere!" Joshua seeing the new-comers.] Yere's de scouts!

[Three very ragged and dusty young men advance to Moses.] Moses [As the shouting dies]: So it's de River Jordan?

First Scout: Yes, sah.

Moses: All we got to take is de City of Jericho.

First Scout: Yes, sah.

Moses: Joshua, you got to take charge of de fightin' men, an' Aaron's gotta stay by de priests.

Joshua: What about you?

Moses: You are leazy, me behind. Joshua, you gontter get de fightin' men together and take dat city befo' sundown.

Joshua: It's a big city, Moses, wid walls all 'round it. We ain't got enough men.

Moses: You'll take it, Joshua.

Joshua: Yes, sah, but how?

Moses: Move up to de walls wid our people. Tell de priests to go wid you wid de ram horns. You start marchin' 'round dem walls, and den—

Joshua: Yes, sah.

Moses: De Lawd'll take charge, jest as He took charge ev' time I've led you against a city. He ain't never failed, has He?

Several Voices: No, Moses. [All raise their heads.]

Moses: And He ain't goin' to fail no more. [He prays. All bow.] Oh Lawd, I'm turnin' over our brave young men to You, enise I know You don't want me to lead 'em any further. [Rises.] Jest like You said, I've got to de Jordan but I can't get over it. An' yere dey goin' now to take de City of Jericho. In a little while dey'll be marchin' 'round it. An' would You please be so good as to tell 'em what to do? Amen. [To Joshua.] Go ahead. Ev'body follows Joshua now. Give de signal to march on wit' ev'rythin'. [A trumpet is heard.] You camp fo' de night in de City of Jericho. [Moses seats himself on the rock.]

Joshua: Can't we help you, Moses?

Moses: You go ahead. De Lawd's got His plans fo' me. Sound de signal to march. [Another trumpet call is heard. The company starts marching off. Aaron lingers a moment.] Take care of de Ark of de Covenant, Aaron.

Aaron: Yes, brother. Goodbye. Moses: Good-bye, Aaron. [The singing is resumed softly and dies away. The last of the marchers has disappeared.] Yere I is, Lawd. De chillun is goin' into de Promised Land. [God enters from behind the hill. He walks to Moses, puts His hands on his shoulders.] You's wid me, ain't You, Lawd?

God: Co'se I is. Listen, Moses. Jest like You said I'd be, when I broke de tablets of de law. De ol' machine's broke down.

God: Jest what was it I said to you, Moses? De you remember?

Moses: You said I couldn't go into de Promised Land.

God: Dnt's so. But dat ain't all dey was to it.

Moses: How You mean, Lawd?

God: Moses, you been a good man. You been a good leader of My people. You got Me angry once, dat's true. And when you anger Me I'm a God of Wrath. But I never meant you wasn't gontter have what was comin' to you. An' I ain't goin' to do you out of it. Moses. It's jest de country acrost de River dat you ain't gontter enter. You gontter have a Promised Land. I been gettin' it ready fo' you fo' a long time. Kin you stand wit' Me now? [Moses and God shake hands.] Yes, sah, Lawd.

God: Come on, I'm goin' to show it to you. We goin' up dis hill to see it. Moses, it's a million times nicer dan de Land of Canaan.

[They take a step or two up the hill, when Moses stops suddenly.]

Moses: Oh!

God: What's de matter?

Moses: We can't be doin' dis! God: Co'se we kin!

Moses: But I to'got! I to'got about Joshua and de fightin' men!

God: How about 'em?

Moses: Dey're marchin' on Jericho. I to' 'em to march 'round de wall and den de Lawd would be dere to toll 'em what to do.

God: Dat's all right. He's dere. Moses: Den who's dis helpin' me up de hill?

God: Yo' faith, yo' God.

Moses: And is You over dere helpin' them too, Lawd? Is You goin' to tell dem poor chillun what to do?

God: Co'se I is. Listen, Moses. I'll show you how I'm helpin' dem.

[From the distance comes the blast of the ram's horns, the sound of crumbling walls, a roar, and a moment's silence. The Choir begins "Joshua, Fil De Battle of Jericho" and continues through the rest of the scene.]

Moses: You did it, Lawd! You've looken it! Listen to de chillun—dey's in de Land of Canaan at last! You's de only God dey ever was, ain't You, Lawd?

God [Quietly]: Come on, ol' man. [They continue up the hill.]

[The stage is darkened.]

"COAL TRADE MUST ADVERTISE."

ACTION TO MEET GROWING COMPETITION.

The need for publicity and advertising in the coal trade was stressed by Mr. Selfridge to members of the Coal Trade Luncheon Club in London.

The coal trade, he said, was no longer a monopoly, and they had seriously to recognise that oil, electricity, petrol, and water power were in competition against them. The coal trade had to do something to meet that competition. Publicity and advertising were the hand-maidens of industry, and had become necessary factors in progress.

"Printers' ink, judiciously used, can be one of the biggest powers in the world," added Mr. Selfridge. "It makes public opinion; it makes people make up their minds; it decides people on certain points, which they had not before decided."

Moses: You go ahead. De Lawd's got His plans fo' me. Sound de signal to march. [Another trumpet call is heard. The company starts marching off. Aaron lingers a moment.] Take care of de Ark of de Covenant, Aaron.

Aaron: Yes, brother. Goodbye. Moses: Good-bye, Aaron. [The singing is resumed softly and dies away. The last of the marchers has disappeared.] Yere I is, Lawd. De chillun is goin' into de Promised Land. [God enters from behind the hill. He walks to Moses, puts His hands on his shoulders.] You's wid me, ain't You, Lawd?
